WellSpring Lifestyle Retreat is a worldwide, faith-based, supporting ministry of the Seventh-day Adventist Church. We are a full-service medical missionary public health, educational, publishing, and training ministry. Although we are not under the formal administration of the Seventh-day Adventist Church, we believe all the doctrines of the Seventh-day Adventist Church and are in harmony with its elected leadership. We believe in the prophetic ministry of the late Ellen G. White and abide by her counsels as we go about our work in the ministry. Therefore, we operate on the Outpost center model as proposed in her writings.

We minister to everyone without regard to race, creed, gender, ethnicity, or national origin. We believe that by ministering in Christ's stead, and in His power, we can hasten His return, which is the supreme object of our ministry. We feel the call to attempt and achieve in His name the very best in the service of mankind.

I have read the above and am in harmony with the principles stated therein. I have answered all questions and requests honestly and the best of my ability. Should I be accepted in faith partnership with WellSpring Lifestyle Retreat, I will fully support and promote these principles and do so attest by affixing my signature and date.
